

ENTIRE SOUTH EXCITED BY THE CARMACK DUEL

EX-SENATOR WHOSE KILLING IN DUEL
EXCITES THE SOUTH.

Feud Fights Expected to Follow the Killing of ex-Senator by Young Cooper.

FATHER AN ACCESSORY.

Widow of Dead Man Swears Out Warrant Against Colonel, Who Is Cool in Jail.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 10.—Messages by wire and mail from various sections testify to the tremendous sensation caused throughout the South by the killing of ex-Senator E. W. Carmack by young Robin Jones Cooper in a street duel here. Carmack's brilliant career as a United States Senator from Tennessee had made him one of the best known of national figures. Col. Duncan Cooper, father of young Robin Cooper, and who was with his son when the duel occurred, has a legion of friends both in his own and various other States.

After having been prepared for burial, the body of the ex-Senator was taken to the home of Frank Lander, business manager of his newspaper, the Tennesseean. There it remained until its removal to-day to Columbia, where it will be interred. Mr. Carmack was married at Columbia and had made that city his home until he went to the Tennesseean. Mrs. Carmack had not yet become a resident of Nashville. Although almost prostrated, she came to Nashville last night and returned with her husband's body to-day.

Cooper's Wound Slight.

Young Cooper, having had his wound dressed, spent a quiet night in a hospital last night in charge of an officer. His injuries prove to be but slight. To-day he is resting easy. His father spent the night at Police Headquarters, and slept well.

Two warrants were sworn out against him, one "accessory to murder," and the other "carrying a pistol."

In the first instance the complainant is Mrs. E. W. Carmack; in the latter it is the Mayor and City Council. Cooper gave his occupation as that of a farmer. He accepted the situation calmly, although once or twice he seemed somewhat affected and observed that the shot was meant for him and not for his boy. He was reconciled to his condition of imprisonment, remarking that as a soldier in the Confederate army he had spent more than one year in a Federal prison.

Col. Cooper turned over his revolver, none of the chambers of which had been emptied, to a police sergeant. Robin Cooper did likewise with his, and one empty shell dropped out of the magazine when the young man's weapon was unloaded. It is an automatic magazine revolver, and it is not known how many shots had been fired, but it was thought that an examination would show three.

Two chambers of the revolver of Senator Carmack were empty.

Only two remarks were made by young Cooper while in the physician's office last night. One was a request to his father to give up his pistol, and in the other he said: "I'm sorry the shooting occurred."

Col. Cooper was taken before Squire

Levine to-day and was charged with being an accessory to the murder and carrying concealed weapons. He waived examination and was remanded to jail without bail.

Warrants were sworn out to-day against Robin Cooper, who killed Carmack, charging him with murder and carrying concealed weapons. He is still at the hospital and it is not known when he will appear for preliminary examination.

The funeral services for Senator Carmack will be held to-morrow, Bishop E. E. Hoss, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, officiating.

Carmack's race for the Democratic nomination for Senator, in which he was defeated by Senator Robert L. Taylor, and his more recent race for the Governorship, in which he was defeated by Gov. Patterson, had served to draw his following in the State closer to him, and his tragic end has spread distress and bitterness among them. It is feared by some that the end of the trouble is not yet, and it is sure to play a part in coming political alignments.

In each of Carmack's recent campaigns feeling ran to fever pitch, and on both occasions Cooper was with the opposition.

In former years the men were close friends, Carmack having declared in public print that Cooper was his benefactor. But friendship had been replaced by enmity, which was more noticeable since Carmack became editor of the Tennesseean, following the late primary. Then the editorial attacks began which culminated in yesterday's killing.

Care of a Broom.

There is a great deal of difference in the quality of work a broom will do and the length of time it will wear. One that is used every day should be washed once a week. Prepare a bucketful of suds by dissolving a tablespoonful of Gold Dust washing powder in hot water and dip the broom up and down in it until the straw is clean and new. Then rinse and hang up to dry. If a new broom is dipped in hot suds before it is used, the straw will be toughened and will not break so easily. Do not set the broom down in a corner after it is used, but have a hook in the handle and hang it up.

KNICKERBOCKER TRUST PAYS A YEAR AHEAD

Directors Vote to Anticipate Installments Due Up to Jan. 1, 1910.

The Board of Directors of the Knickerbocker Trust Company to-day voted to pay all the installments due its depositors until the last of December, 1909. This is an anticipation in payments for a whole year at a single time.

When the company reopened its doors last March it was not believed that any of the installments due its depositors would be anticipated. But in the first seven months 30 per cent. of the amount due depositors was anticipated, the accounts being credited in advance with the installments due up to February, 1909.

To-day, the directors voted a credit of an additional 25 per cent., which anticipates the installments due before Jan. 1, 1910. It was the first meeting of the board since the anniversary of the closing of the company in the financial panic of last year.

The Executive Committee of the board is composed of Dumont Clarke, Frederick G. Bourne, Franklin Q. Brown, J. Horace Harding, William A. Tucker, G. Louis Boissvain and President Charles H. Keop. Herbert L. Satterlee, who reorganized the company, is a member of the board.

BROOKLYN POLICE BUREAU CUT OUT

Gen. Bingham Announces That Department Will Be Centralized in Manhattan.

Police Commissioner Bingham announced to-day that from now on he intended to abolish Brooklyn Police Headquarters. He will cease operating the bureau there as a separate piece of Department machinery, and move First Deputy Commissioner Baker back from across the bridge to No. 30 Mulberry street. The Commissioner made this announcement in discussing the big shake-up which took place last week during Commissioner Baker's vacation.

"No slight to my deputy was intended in making these transfers in his absence," said Commissioner Bingham. "I merely did it while he was away so that if any blame was attached to it I alone might be held responsible."

"It was merely a preliminary step in a change I have been contemplating for a long time. My idea is to centralize the department in Manhattan where I can keep my finger on it. Brooklyn will be used as a telephone exchange and detective bureau, but it will have no separate existence as has hitherto been the case. Deputy Baker will make his headquarters here and all reports will be forwarded to the Manhattan bureau. I believe the new plan will work well and be of great benefit to the department. It will enable me to keep always in close touch with affairs."
